

2.

Three older children, two boys and a girl, were in Jennifer's family when she joined them. They were friendly, open children. At first Jennifer shared a room with her adoptive sister but the family moved to a bigger house in the suburbs where each child had a separate bedroom.

The finalization of Jennifer's adoption took place in June of 1969 in the County of York, Ontario.

Shelagh Hewitt Kareda
Adoption and Crown Ward
Disclosure Service

Don Wilkins
Supervisor
Adoption and Crown Ward
Disclosure Service

SHK/en
October 26, 1998
DeBruin

This history has been compiled from the records of the Children's Aid Society. It is a summary of the information which has been provided by various sources including those external to the Society, and recorded at the time of the Society's involvement.